ANSWER OF THIRD PARTY DEFENDANT HOKYONG KIM A/K/A STEWART KIM

Defendant Stewart Kim (“Kim”), for his answer to the Amended Third-Party Complaint (“TPC,” Dkt. No. 195) of Senior Health Insurance Company of Pennsylvania (“SHIP”), pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(b)(iii), denies generally all of the allegations in the TPC insofar as they include Kim by name or reference to a group of defendants in which Kim is included, and otherwise, to the extent a response is required, denies knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations, except as follows:

AS TO JURISDICTION

Kim admits that this Court has jurisdiction.

AS TO VENUE

Kim admits that venue is proper in this case.

AS TO PARAGRAPH 44

Kim admits that he is a resident of Manhasset, New York, that he was a senior manager of Platinum Management, and acted as Chief Risk Officer at Beechwood Re. Otherwise, Kim denies knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief of the truth of the allegations in paragraph 44.

AS TO CLAIMS FOR RELIEF

Kim denies the TPC's claims for relief to the extent any response is required. Accordingly, Kim denies that SHIP is entitled to relief.

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Kim sets forth his affirmative defenses below. By setting forth these independent and separate affirmative defenses, Kim does not assume the burden of proving any fact, issue, or element of a claim where such burden properly belongs to SHIP.

First Affirmative Defense

SHIP's claims are barred, in whole or in part, for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted.

Second Affirmative Defense

SHIP's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by applicable statutes of limitations.

Third Affirmative Defense

SHIP's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because they have been released, discharged, compromised or settled.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

SHIP's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because any damages they claim that were incurred by SHIP were due to the acts or omissions of parties other than Kim.

Fifth Affirmative Defense

SHIP's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of in pari delicto.

Sixth Affirmative Defense

SHIP's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because it consented to and/or ratified the conduct alleged to have been wrongful in the TPC.

Seventh Affirmative Defense

SHIP's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of unclean hands.

Eighth Affirmative Defense

SHIP's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by its failure to mitigate.

Ninth Affirmative Defense

SHIP's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by equitable doctrines, including acquiescence, waiver, estoppel, and laches.

Tenth Affirmative Defense

SHIP's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Kim at all times acted in good faith.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

Kim has not knowingly or intentionally waived any applicable defenses, and reserves all rights to assert and rely upon other applicable defenses that may become available or apparent as this matter proceeds. Kim reserve all rights to amend or seek to amend his answer and affirmative defenses.
