Re: Securities and Exchange Commission v. Platinum Management (NY) LLC, Civil Case No. 1:16-cv-06848-BMC

Dear Judge Cogan:

Pursuant to a conversation with your courtroom deputy, I write in connection with the above-captioned matter. I represent Richard and Marisa Stadtmauer, who are creditors of Mark Nordlicht based on a personal guaranty by Mr. Nordlicht of a promissory note issued by Platinum Partners Credit Opportunities Fund LLC and Platinum Partners Credit Opportunities Master Fund, L.P. On June 29, 2020, Mr. Nordlicht filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, In re Mark A. Nordlicht, Case No. 20-22782-rd (the "Bankruptcy"). To preserve their rights in the Bankruptcy, the Stadtmauers must file proofs of claim in that proceeding by November 25, 2020.

Although the Stadtmauers do not believe that filing a proof of claim in the Bankruptcy would violate the litigation stay in this matter, in an abundance of caution, the Stadtmauers seek permission to be added as an interested party in this matter so that they can move for an order lifting the litigation stay to permit them to do so. I have conferred with counsel for the Receiver and understand that the Receiver will not oppose the motion. I am grateful for your Honor's attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Nathaniel J. Kritzer
